Pick an Entrance, Any Entrance

The Theater District Parking Garage offers its Access Card holders seven entrances to choose from on a daily basis.

The entire garage, which encompasses the equivalent of 18 city blocks, is broken down into two subset garages, the Civic Center garage which can be accessed directly by five entrances, and the Tranquillity Garages (both Large and Small) which can be accessed directly by two entrances.

Every entrance into the Civic and Tranquillity garages, which make up the overall Theater District Garage, is flagged by a huge monument sign which displays a designation number on them.

Entrances #1, #4, #6, #7, and #8 all lead directly into the Civic Center garage.

These entrances can be accessed by Rusk Street (#1), Capital Street (#4), Texas Avenue (#6 and #7), and Prairie Street (#8).

Entrance #1 is the entrance an Access Card holder should use if they want to come by the Parking or Security offices. These are both located on the Green level.

Entrances #4, #6, #7 and #8 give our patrons easy access to Bayou Place, Jones Hall, Wortham Center, Alley Theatre, and our Orange Concourse tunnel, which has direct access to the Bank of America building.

Entrances #2 and #5 lead directly into the Tranquillity Garages with #2 serving the Large Tranquillity business and #5 serving both the Large and Small Tranquillity.

These entrances can be accessed by Rusk Street (#2) and by Capital Street (#5).

Entrance #2 is most used by patrons that are going to City Hall or to the tunnel system at 611 Walker.

Entrance #5 is also used for the same purposes along with being able to access the Federal Building easily.

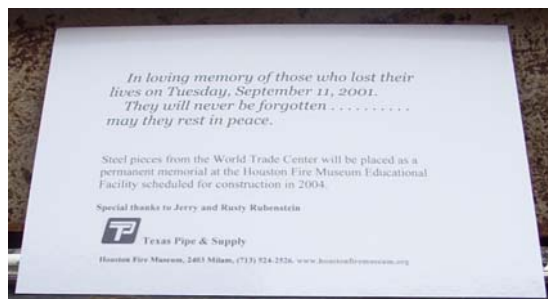

For questions or tours of the garage, please call 713-236-5775.

The Theater District Heats Up

With the arrival of Fall's cooler weather, the Theater District and its many venues are starting to heat up.

October sparks the beginning of a full schedule of shows and events that are sure to bring many visitors and patrons to the Theater District and once again, the Theater District Garage is at the center of it all.

Our Access Card holders already have parking spaces waiting for them in the only downtown parking garage that has tunnel access to all the major venues such as the Wortham Center, Jones Hall, Hobby Center for the Performing Arts and the Verizon Wireless Theater.

The Houston Symphony has many performances slated for Jones Hall in October such as Richard Rodgers Centennial, The Mozart Effect, and a special performance from Tony Bennett.

The Houston Grand Opera has La Boheme kicking off its season at the Brown Theater in the Wortham Center along with Ariodante.

Hobby Center for the Performing Arts hits high gear with the Theater Under the Stars production of What Ever Happened to Baby Jane in mid-October.

And the Verizon Wireless Theater has seven concerts schedule for the month of October featuring such acts as Elvis Costello, Rueben Blades, Bone Thugs N' Harmony and a night of Extreme Fighting.

For more information on these venues and their show schedules, you can contact the Theater District Association or log on to www.houstontheaterdistrict.org.
